

2021 Trustees Summer Camp Financial Assistance Application

The Trustees is committed to providing quality camp experiences for youth regardless of family income. Anyone who can demonstrate a need for financial assistance to attend a Trustees summer camp is encouraged to apply.

Awards for financial assistance are available in full and partial denominations and are distributed on a rolling basis. In an effort to provide assistance to as many children as possible, assistance may be limited to one week per child.

Please complete and sign all three pages of the form for each child who wishes to attend camp. If you have more than one prospective camper, fill out additional forms as needed.
